

Calendar of Tweets for Global Coalition Against Child Pneumonia in Advance of World Pneumonia Day

As we approach World Pneumonia Day 2011, we ask that all members of the Global Coalition Against Child Pneumonia coordinate efforts in order to ensure messaging is consistent across social media platforms. Beginning two weeks before November 12th, we ask that you use the tweets outlined below to tease the upcoming World Pneumonia Day. This coordinated effort will ensure that the #WPD2011 hashtag is used by all members and that the messaging and call to action each day is consistent for the entire campaign.

Thank you for helping make World Pneumonia Day 2011 a success!
